

Mandate of the Nomination Committee at The BANK of Greenland

1. Introduction

- 1.1. This mandate is reviewed, updated and approved annually by the Board of Directors. Proposed amendments may be made by any member of the board, including members of the nomination committee.

2. Constitution and Purpose

- 2.1. In accordance with Section 80a of the Financial Activities Act and in accordance with the Board of Director's Rules of Procedure, the Board of Directors is the body responsible for setting up a Nomination Committee. The Nomination Committee consists of the chairman of the Board of Directors and one or two additional members of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors serves as Chairman of the Committee.
- 2.2. The purpose of the Nomination Committee is to support the Board of Directors in its efforts to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Board of Management. The committee is thus the seat of responsibility for determining the areas of competence for both boards.

3. Frequency of Meetings and Convening

- 3.1. Meetings of the Nomination Committee are held as often as the Chairman deems it necessary but at least once a year.
- 3.2. The meetings of the Nomination Committee are convened with an agenda by the Chairman in reasonable time prior to the meeting.

4. Meeting Structure and Organisation

- 4.1. The Nomination Committee meetings are attended by committee members, and the Chairman chairs the meetings. Minutes are taken, but if the Nomination Committee meeting is held immediately prior to a Board meeting, the Committee may make a provisional verbal report and submit any recommendation. The Chairman may decide that others (the Board of Management, consultants, etc.) can participate in committee meetings.
- 4.2. The Committee has the authority to examine all matters within the scope of its mandate and to obtain the information and assistance needed to perform its duties from the Board of Directors and the Board of Management at The BANK of Greenland.
- 4.3. The annual evaluation of the Board of Directors will be made available to the Committee and be included as part of the Committee's work.

5. Decision-making Powers and Authority

- 5.1. The Nomination Committee shall report to and may move to pass a resolution for approval by the Board of Directors.
- 5.2. The Nomination Committee is legally competent when all members attend the meeting. Decisions are taken by simple majority vote. In the event of a tied vote, the Chairman will hold the casting vote.

6. Tasks of the Nomination Committee

In accordance with the Danish Financial Business Act, the Committee must ensure the following:

- 6.1. Provide a description of the expertise of the overall Board of Directors and the individual members. Propose candidates for election to the Board of Directors and submit these to the Board of Directors by no later than 1 February. On the proposal of candidates to the Board of Directors, the Nomination Committee must prepare a description of the qualifications required for the specific position, and state the time expected to be required to be devoted to the Board position. The Committee must also consider proposals from relevant external parties.
- 6.2. Set up target figures for the ratio of the chosen members of the general assembly of the under-represented gender in the Board of Directors.

Set up target figures of the under-represented gender that are on different levels of leadership.

Create a policy to increase the ratio of the under-represented gender that are on different levels of leadership.
- 6.3. Create a policy for diversity in the Board of Directors in order to promote sufficient diversity in the qualifications and expertise of the members of the Board of Directors and recommend this to the Board of Directors.
- 6.4. Continuously and at least once a year assess the size, structure, composition and results of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management Board in relation to the tasks to be undertaken, and report on and submit recommendations for any changes to the full Board of Directors.
- 6.5. Continuously and at least once a year assess whether the overall Board of Directors and the Executive Management Board have the required combination of knowledge, professional competence, diversity and experience, and whether the individual member fulfils the requirements in Section 64 and Section 64 a of the Danish Financial Business Act, and report on and submit recommendations for any changes to the full Board of Directors. The Committee's assessment is submitted to the Board of Directors.
- 6.6. Annually assess that the members continuously update and supply their knowledge to applicable relations, and that the members particular knowledge and qualifications are used in the best way possible.
- 6.7. To execute the assignments in the best way possible, the Board of Directors should annually discuss and judge which of the collective and individual qualifications to do the tasks, as well should the Board of Directors discuss and judge the Board of Directors composition, diversity and submit the conclusions of the discussions to the Board of Directors
- 6.8. Continuously ensure that the Board of Directors decision making is not dominated by an individual or a small group of people, in a way that damages the corporation's interest.

In accordance with the corporate governance's recommendations, the committee will prepare the following tasks:

- 6.9. Describe the qualifications required of the Board of Directors and Executive Management Board for a given position, and state the time assessed to be required to be allocated to the position. The Committee must also assess the competence, knowledge and experience held by the Board of Directors and Executive Management Board.

- 6.10. Annually assess the structure, size, composition and results of the Board of Directors and Executive Management Board and recommend proposed changes to the Board of Directors.
- 6.11. In cooperation with the Chairman of the Board of Directors, manage the annual evaluation of the Board of Directors and assess the qualifications, knowledge, experience and succession of the individual members, and report on and submit to the Board of Directors
- 6.12. Manage the recruitment of new members for the Board of Directors and the Board of Management and nominate candidates to approval of the Board of Directors.
- 6.13. Instigate that there is a succession plan for the Board of Directors.
- 6.14. Monitor that a policy for diversity is being compiled to the approval of the Board of Directors.
- 6.15. Monitor the Board of Directors policy about hiring leading employees.

Finally, in accordance with the management code of the Danish Bankers Association, the Committee has included the following:

- 6.16. Ensure that the bank uses a well-described and structured process for the recruitment of candidates for the Board of Directors, and possibly involves external expertise.

7. Reporting to the Board of Directors, etc.

- 7.1. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors following a meeting of the Nomination Committee, the Board of Directors is briefed on the proceedings of the Committee and is presented with possible options from the Committee for decision.
- 7.2. A brief description of the Committee's activities during the preceding year is included in The BANK of Greenland's annual report. In addition, information required in accordance with the corporate governance recommendations is made publicly available.

8. Resources

- 8.1. The Nomination Committee has the opportunity to involve and use all the resources that the Committee deems necessary, including external advice.
